

Pasco County Title 1 School Level
Parent and Family Engagement Plan 2022-2023

Rodney B. Cox Elementary School

Each Title I school shall jointly develop with parents and family members of participating children, a written plan that shall describe how the school will carry out the requirements mentioned below. Parents shall be notified of the plan in an understandable and uniform format and, to the extent practical, provided in a language the parents can understand. The school plan must be made available to the local community and updated and agreed on by parents periodically to meet the changing needs of parents and the school.

School's vision for engaging families:

What is Required:

Assurances: We will:

- Involve an adequate representation of parents, or establish a parent advisory board to represent families, in developing and evaluating the "School Parent and Family Engagement Plan" that describes how the school will carry out its required family engagement activities.

- Hold an annual meeting for families to explain the Title I program and the rights of parents to be involved. Offer other meetings/workshops at flexible times.

- Use a portion of Title I funds to support parent and family engagement and involve parents in deciding how these funds are to be used.

- Involve parents in the planning, review, and improvement of the Title I program.

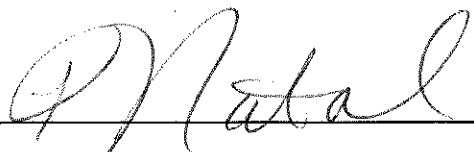

- Develop a school-parent compact that outlines how parents, students, and school staff will share the responsibility for improving student achievement, and describes how parents and teachers will communicate.

- Offer assistance to parents in understanding the education system and the state standards, and how to support their children's achievement.

- Provide materials and training to help parents support their child's learning at home. Educate teachers and other school staff, including school leaders, on how to engage families effectively.

- Coordinate with other federal and state programs, including preschool programs.

- Provide information in a format and language parents can understand, and offer information in other languages as feasible.

EVERY TITLE I SCHOOL IN PASCO COUNTY WILL:

1. Involve parents in the planning, review, and improvement of their Comprehensive Needs Assessment and Title I program. The school will jointly develop and evaluate the Parent & Family Engagement plan with an adequate representation of parents.

Describe the method in which parents were involved	An annual paper survey was sent home to all parents and collected. In addition, we posted a digital survey on our website and Facebook page. In addition, we solicited feedback from our SAC in March about the engagement plan. The data was gathered and used to develop the PFEP for 2022-2023.
Date of meeting to gather parent input for Comprehensive Needs Assessment	We did a focus group on March 24, 2022 to gather input on the comprehensive needs assessment.
Date of meeting to gather parent input for this Title I Parent and Family Engagement Plan	We invited parents to attend the SAC meeting on March 24, 2022 to provide feedback on the PFEP for 2022-2023. We also talked with families at our One School One Book family event on April 1, 2022.

Evidence of the input gathered and how it was/will be used should be uploaded to Title I Crate.*

2. Develop a school-home compact that outlines how parents, students, and school staff will share the responsibility for improving student achievement and describes how parents & teachers will communicate.

How were parents invited to develop or revise the compact?	Notification of the meeting was on our Facebook, a school callout, the marquee, and on our family events calendar. We invited parents to attend the SAC meeting on March 24, 2022 to provide feedback to create the parent compact. We distributed the compact at meet the teacher August 2021.
Date of parent meeting to develop or revise the compact	A draft compact was provided during our SAC meeting on March 24, 2022 for feedback.
What communication methods will be used between teachers & parents as well as school & parents?	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. A school-home folder will be sent home weekly on Wednesday containing any school-wide information and notifications. 2. Student planner books will be used K-5 to provide daily written communication between teacher and home. 3. School calls every other Sunday communicating important information and upcoming events. 4. Facebook and our school website will have important information and upcoming events. Class Dojo App will be used to connect families with events and student progress.
